The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 16. to Thursday July 19. 1705.

From the Imperial Camp near Soncino, July 8. N.S.

THE Grand Prior is encamped at Ombriano, and has ſent a Detachment of 5000 Men towards the Adda. We have Advice, That a Reinforcement of Foot, with our heavy Artillery, is come by Water to Salo, on the Lake di Guarda.

Vienna, July 11. Field-Marſhal General Gronsfeld and Duke Maximilian of Hanover are gone from hence to the Imperial Army upon the Rhine; and Field-Marſhal General Heiſter will be going thither in few days. A Courier arrived here yeſterday from Prince Eugene, with Letters dated at Calzo near the Oglio the 2d Inſtant, giving an Account of General Viſconti's having defeated 6 Spaniſh Battalions near Bergamo; whereof Five thouſand were killed upon the ſpot, and Three hundred, with their General Toralba, and a conſiderable Number of other Officers, were taken Priſoners. The Imperialiſts have ſince made themſelves Maſters of Ponte-Oglio and Palazzuolo; which laſt Place will be of great uſe to them for the erecting of Magazines, and preſerving a Communication with Tirol. The Grand Prior had paſſed the Oglio at Soncino, and expected a Reinforcement of 8000 Men from the Duke de Vendoſme.

Berlin, July 18. Monſieur Prebendow, Ambaſſador from Poland, is gone from hence to Dreſden, to wait upon the King his Maſter. The Saxon Forces continue encamped on the Borders of that Electorate; and it is ſaid, that 20000 of them are to march into Poland. We hear that 8 or 9000 Swedes are marching towards Warſaw; and that the Diet lately ſummoned by the Cardinal Primate to meet in that City, is put off till next Month, in hopes to have it fuller than if it had ſate at the time which was firſt appointed. Letters from Breſlau of the 15th ſay, That the Czar was haſtening with his Army by long Marches towards Poland; and we are in expectation to hear what he will undertake, the Succeſs of which may have a great Influence upon the Affairs of that Country.

Francfort, July 19. Our Army continues encamped at Lauterbourg, and will ſhortly be reinforced by the Palatine Troops in the Pay of the States General, and thoſe of the Circle of Weſtphalia, which are returning from the Moſelle, and by 5 other Palatine Regiments that lie between Mentz and Creutſnach. The Troops which the Electorate of Saxony is to furniſh as its Quota towards carrying on the War, began to march this way the 10th Inſtant, in order likewiſe to join the Imperial Army: They come by the way of Bamberg and Wurtzbourg. The Enemy are ſtill near Haguenau. The Loſs they ſuſtained in their late Attack of our Lines at Lauterbourg is computed at about 1200 Men killed and wounded. It is ſaid they intend to divide their Army into two Bodies, whereof one will continue near Croon-Weiſſembourg, and the other is to be poſted on each ſide the Rhine, in the Plains of Wayen and Endingen. Letters from Italy ſay, That Prince Eugene had his head Quarters at Alzi, and had inveſted Soncino; That the Grand Prior lay encamped between Ombriano and Cremaſco, had reinforced the Gariſons of Cremona and Lodi; and expected a Reinforcement from the Duke of Vendoſme: And that an Exchange was agreed upon of the German Governor of Mirandola for General Toralba; and of the Imperial Forces which were in that Gariſon when the French took it, for an equal Number of French and Spaniſh Priſoners.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Vlierbeck, July 28. N. S. Our Army and that of the Enemy continue ſtill in their former Camps, having between them the River Dyle and the City of Louvain, wherein the Enemy have a very ſtrong Gariſon, which fire ſtill from the Wall towards our Line, but without doing us any manner of Damage. The great Rains we have had for two days paſt have ſo ſwelled the Dyle, that his Grace has thought fit to defer attempting the Paſſage of it till ſuch time as the Waters are ſomewhat abated. The 21ſt Inſtant ſome Straglers of the French Army coming over the Dyle, at a place where they had thrown up ſome Works on the other ſide, a Battalion of my Lord Orkney's Regiment was ordered to ſuſtain our Guard of 200 Men poſted on this ſide, upon whoſe Approach they immediately retired; but our Men purſuing them too far, a Captain of my Lord Orkney's Regiment was killed, and ſome few Men wounded, by the Fire from behind their Line. Major-General Wood, who was upon Duty that day, going thither likewiſe, had a ſmall Contuſion, but is abroad again. His Grace has ſent the Marquis d'Alegre, and the other Officers which are Priſoners, to Maſtricht, from whence they are to be conducted to Amersford and Rhenen; and the private Soldiers are to be ſent from Liege by Water, and to be diſperſed in other Tows in Holland. Orders are given for ſeveral Regiments in Gariſon in Brabant and Flanders to march out, and join Baron Spar, who commands a Body of Troops on that ſide, and may by this means be in a Condition to enter upon Action. His Grace has appointed to morrow to be obſerved as a Day of Publick Thankſgiving thro' the whole Army for our happy Succeſs in forcing the Lines. This morning his Grace went with a Guard of 600 Horſe to Arſchot, which Place the Enemy quitted 3 days ago with ſo much Precipitation, that they left a good quantity of Ammunition in the Gariſon. His Grace left there a Detachment of 200 Horſe, which will be relieved to morrow by a Battalion of Foot.

LIST of the Officers and Soldiers in the French and Bavarian Service, taken Priſoners at the forcing of the Enemy's Lines, July 18, 1705.

MArquis d'Alegre, Lieut. Gen.
Count Hoorn, Lieut. Gen.
Don Andrea Benedittes, ſince dead of his Wounds, } Maj. Gen.

Monſieur Santoncq, Brigadier General, and Inſpector General of the Spaniſh Horſe.

Monſieur de Perlata, Brigadier General in the Service of Spain, and Captain of the Elector of Bavaria's Guards.

Monſieur Deſpina, Colonel of Horſe in the Service of the Elector of Cologne.

Monſieur de Pellerade, Lieutenant Colonel, who commanded the Troop of the Elector of Bavaria's Life-Guard.

Monſieur Menuſy, Lieutenant Colonel of the Elector of Bavaria's Guards.

SPANISH TROOPS.

Of the Guards with the Black Horſes.

Monſ. de Marquelly, much wounded, } Captain.
Don Jeronimo Zuares, Lieutenant
Monſieur Doſtein, Cornet.
Mon. de Grandmaiſon, Quartermr

Of the Guards with the White Horſes.

Monſieur de Beſſy, much wounded, } Major.
Monſ. Dumont, } Captain.
De Montalto, Lieutenant
Monſieur De Porta, much wounded, } Cornet.
Monſieur Gilment, Reformade, } Cornet.
Baron de Boulairs, Cornet.

Of the Guards with the Bay Horſes.

Monſieur de Celis, much wounded, } Captain.
Monſ. de Carbon, ſince dead of his Wounds at Tirlemont. } Captain.
Monſieur Meyne, wounded, } Cornet.
Monſieur Montero, wounded, } Cornet.
Monſ. Brembery, Cornet.
Monſ. Almeron, Cornet.

Bavarian Guards. Of the Grenadiers:

Count Raymont, Lieut. Col.
Count Tauſkirchen, Lieut. Col.
Monſ. de Montauban, much wounded, } Captain.
Monſieur Dangeroſſe, Lieutenant

Spaniſh Horſe. Of the Regiment of Heyden.

Monſieur Rivera, Colonel.
De Murva, Major.
De Genzale, Captain.
Monſieur Pettaux, Lieutenant
De Pouffieu, Cornet.

Of the Regiment of Beauſart.

Baron de Meulebecq, Captain.
Baron de Bergeyck, Captain.
Mon. Micque Chalony, Lieutenant
Mon. Jean Jacques, much wounded. } Lieutenant
Mon. Carega, Cornet.
De Baregan, Cornet.
De Wickerſloot, Quartermr

Bavarian Horſe. Of the Carabiniers.

Monſ. D'Eyſendorf, Lieut. Col.
Dobentraut, Major.
Chevalier d'Oly, wounded. } Lieutenant
Monſ. Barley, Lieutenant
Monſ. Houlchouck, Lieutenant
Steger, Lieutenant
Devertedy, Lieutenant
Vandenbeck, Cornet.

Of the Regiment of Arco. Cuiraſſiers.

Monſ. De Foucany, wounded. } Colonel.
Monſ. De Pechio, Lieutenant
Monſ. De Steger, much wounded. } Lieutenant
Monſ. Oltſchuch, much wounded. } Lieutenant Monſ. Mayer, Adjutant.
Laimans, Quartermr

of